SOCCEROOS BEATEN BUT NOT DISGRACED

The Socceroos bowed out of the Olympics on Sunday, their hopes of reaching the semi-finals blown away in a Russian second-half onslaught.

Although the record books will state that Australia played four matches, beating Yugoslavia 1-0, Nigeria 1-0 and losing 3-0 to both Brazil and the USSR, the bald statistics do the Socceroos less than justice.

This team was competing at the highest level ever attained by an Australian select since the 1974 World Cup.

When you are playing in the same competition as Brazil, Argentina, Italy and the USSR you are playing in the world's First Division and for part-timers to reach the last eight in such illustrious company is an achievement all Australian soccer fans should recognise and be proud of.

It has been a wonderful year for Australian soccer.

The Socceroos have strutted their stuff on the world stage and haven't been found wanting.

They have beaten world champion Argentina, Yugoslavia and Nigeria, and played the USSR once and Brazil twice without ever looking out of their depth.

There is room for improvement, of course.

In all four matches in the Olympics, the failure of the forwards to capitalise was glaringly apparent.

No matter how many chances our classy midfielder Oscar Crino, Alan Davidson and Paul Wade are able to

THE BILL FLEMING MEDAL

A very classy field has lined up for the 1988 Bill Fleming Medal, the presentation of which will be the highlight of the Awards dinner at the Sheraton Hotel on Friday night.

Box Hill's Alan Roodhouse will collect "Soccer Star's" best player award, in which he narrowly pipped Caulfield City's Paul Harris on a countback.

Can he repeat the feat in the Bill Fleming, the prestigious medal named in honour of the late Argus soccer writer, Bill Fleming and voted on by a panel of soccer writers?

Or will it be Ivan Duzel the St Albans midfielder with the silky skills... or West's dynamic striker Darren Tuck... midfielder powerhouse Martin (Norm) Woodall... or dark horse, Gully's Steven Douglas... or will a surprise choice emerge from the pack?

It you haven't already booked your seat, get in quick for Victorian soccer's night. Victorian awards will be made to the Under/21 Player of the Year, NSL Referee of the Year, NSL Player of the Year, the NSL Team of the Year and the State Team of the Year.

St Albans' Ivan Kelic

will also be there to collect his adidas goalscoring award.

The guest of honour who will present the Bill Fleming award is ex-Celtic, Hearts and Scotland star Willie Wallace, and entertainment will be provided by Australia's top comedian Brian Doyle.

There is some excellent video action too, to get you through your soup. Some tickets are still available, ring Anna on 429 6288 for details.

THE longest State League season ever known has finally dragged itself to a merciful conclusion and six clubs are left wondering where their future lies... is there life after the State League, they are asking themselves.

But what has probably been overlooked in all the furore over whether say Bulleen or Springvale

City would retain its State League status, is the ripple effect, or domino theory. Because the re-organisation of the whole structure of the VSF into 12 team leagues affects the eight divisions of the Victorian and Provisional Leagues too.

And a lot of the clubs in what for want of a better term we refer to as the lower leagues are also becoming deeply worried about their future.

We published a letter recently from John Kennedy, coach of Clarinda, which raised the point that some Councils might not be too thrilled to hear that the grounds that they toil to maintain might be under-used, with clubs playing on them only eleven times a year.

Now we have received a thought-provoking letter from Provisional League

Dingley/Skye which we reproduce in full because we feel that it raises fundamental points that affect all clubs.

A lot of these 'minor' clubs have facilities that would put even some National League clubs to shame.

Have you heard the one about the Irish spot-the-ball competition?

No, honest, it's a true story.

The "Sunday World" of Ireland inadvertently left the ball in picture, but still received hundreds of entries, all of them picking the wrong spot!

An embarrassed editor Colin McClelland said:

Letter from the Dingley/Skye Soccer Club
The editor "Soccer Star"
Dear Sir, It is now left in the hands of the VSF to decide the future of this club.

When you consider that this club at Skye has two grounds, seven pitches, approximately 200 juniors and four senior teams, it would be a strange move to demote it considering what it does to develop our game overall in comparison with some clubs who simply buy a team and don't bother with juniors or do anything for the game's future.

Whatever happened to the days when to get promotion you also had to prove that your ground committee and junior set-up was suitable?

May we take this opportunity to at least thank "Soccer Star" for doing something to publicise our game in Victoria; what a shame the "legends" at VSF can't bring themselves to do the same!

Regards,
(sgd.) John Washington.

NO REPRIEVE FOR RELEGATED CLUBS — SAYS JACK REILLY

● Jack Reilly

DESPITE mounting criticism over the Victorian Soccer Federation's re-organisation plans for next season, there will be no reprieve for those six clubs now marked for relegation.

VSF chairman Jack Reilly says that nothing can change the arrangement at this late stage despite claims from some clubs that they never were in favor of the somewhat drastic measures.

As Reilly says: "We have got to expect a lot of criticism from clubs who now face the prospect of playing in a lower division."

"But the matter was put before three committees before the final decision was made and is no way out of it even if we wanted one."

By BOB BRIAN of the Melbourne Herald

"We will no have plenty of time to play the cups and any other competition we think will benefit the game."

Cup tournaments banned

This season Reilly has banned the Greek and Italian Cup tournaments and the successful Mini World Cup mainly because they were saturating the market with soccer and turning supporters away from the official competitions.

The season has definitely been too long for some years now and it was obvious that something had to be done sooner or later to streamline soccer in this state.

To do it in one fell swoop is a bit drastic in my opinion, but it seems obvious that not enough opposition was put up when the plans were discussed.

Morwell president Don Di Fabrizio was one of the dissenters and there were others.

I know of one first division club which is now trying to organise opposition to the plan, but it may be too late.

Anyway, a meeting is expected to take place this week, so the battle is not over yet.

In the meantime, Reilly comes up for reelection when the Victorian Soccer Federation holds its annual general meeting on November 10.

It will be interesting to see if there is any opposition and what effect the dreaded relegation issue will affect Reilly's popularity.

... "unhappy to lose Morwell from the StateLeague"

"I would be unhappy to lose Morwell from the State League," says Reilly. "It is one of the best run clubs in the State League and its facilities are first class, but it just happens to have finished in seventh place and we can't change that."

"I am well aware that a number of clubs are now unhappy about the arrangements and that there is talk of taking action of some kind."

"But I can't see anything changing the Federation's decision. While things settle down I am certain we will see a much better standard of competition from next season on."

"In fact I was asked once why we didn't relegate six clubs every season because of the effect it has had on the various leagues. But they would really be a bit drastic."

"Besides with leagues of 12 clubs, even two going down should set up a strong competition. I am still sure we have done the right thing."

"One of the big advantages is that several

ALL OUR YESTERDAYS ... AT MIDDLE PARK, SUNDAY

THE great Ferenc Puskas will lead an array of some of the greatest players in Australian soccer history in the curtain-raiser to the Industrial and Amateur League Cup final at Middle Park on Sunday at 1 pm.

Puskas, 59, played 84 international matches for Hungary from 1945 to 1956 and together with Alfredo DiStefano, Francisco Gento and Luis Suarez, started in probably the greatest team ever fielded by Real Madrid.

On Sunday, he will lead a team of past Victorian stars against former champions of Footscray JUST.

Most will be heavier, perhaps a little balding and certainly slower than we remember them but for sheer nostalgia it will be a highlight of the 1988 season.

Let us run through some of the legendary figures who will be dusted off for Sunday's game. First, the Puskas all-stars:

JIMMY MACKAY: In Hong Kong in late 1973 it was Mackay who scored the goal as Australia beat South Korea 1-0 to qualify for the 1974 World Cup finals in West Germany.

Australia and South Korea had drawn 0-0 in Sydney and 2-2 in 31 full international matches for Australia.

Mackay, a midfielder, and Billy Vojtek, were the driving forces of Croatia before that club was expelled from the Victorian Soccer Federation. He switched to Hakoah of Sydney for the 1973 and 1974 seasons before signing for South Melbourne Hellas in 1975. Later he had stints in Shepparton and with Sandringham City.

ATTI ABONYI: With a total of 25 goals, Abonyi and John Kosmina are Australia's joint top scorers in full international matches, although counting all games for the Socceroos (against club teams, etc.), Kosmina has 44 and Abonyi only 36.

Abonyi started with the Melbourne-Hungaria juniors and scored a hat-trick of goals in the 1967 Australia Cup final, won by Melbourne 4-3 against APLA. He later transferred to St George Budapest in Sydney and then was player-coach of Sydney Croatia.

He had a stint as coach of Canberra City in 1983 and returned to Sydney Croatia as non-playing coach in 1984. He now is assistant to Frank Arok at St George.

BILLY VOJTEK: A soccer freak, Vojtek is still playing well into his Soccer Federation, Reilly is another who played in the 1974 World Cup finals in West Germany as part of his 15 full international matches for Australia. Came to Australia in 1969 to play in goal for Juventus, which won every possible honor during its glorious 1970 season.

Reilly then followed Victorian State coach Rale Rasic to St George Budapest, playing there while continuing to live in Melbourne due to business commitments. When the travelling became too much for him, he joined Hakoah (Vic.), then was player-coach of Heidelberg-Alexander, had a stint with Hellas and later rejoined Juventus. Now deeply involved in horse-racing.

JIM ARMSTRONG: Now secretary of Hellas, Armstrong remains the all-time top scorer in State League soccer, with an aggregate of 152 goals for Hakoah, Hellas and Juventus during a 12-year reign as king of the strikers. He was League top scorer in 1972 and 1973, he played three full internationals for Australia and represented Victoria 10 times. Like Jimmy Mackay, Armstrong later he played in Shepparton and for Sandringham City.

JOHN BEDFORD: Remains the longest-serving player Hellas has had. He joined the club from Box Hill where is played as a winger, although at Hellas, he played mainly in defence. Like others of his generation, Bedford loved the game so much he could not stop playing when he stepped down from the top level and went on to win a league best and fairest award with Knox City.

JACK REILLY: Now chairman of the Victorian

Ian Marshall and Mike Pye. Represented Victoria seven times and like his Hellas mates, went on to play for Sandringham City.

JOHN SANCHEZ: Won the 1963 Argus Medal while with Slavia. The same year, he was in the Slavia team that won the Australia Cup, beating Polonia 3-2 in the final. He later switched to George Cross which he also coached.

NICK VAN EGMOND SR: Goalkeeper of Ringwood-Wilhelmina and Victoria in the seventies and father of midfielder Nick van Egmond Jr. who played for Mornington, Nunawading, Preston-Makedonia, Wilhelmina and now Croydon.

The Footscray JUST team will include:

BRANKO BULJEVIC: Must be regarded as the main threat to Puskas's men, as he scored a hat-trick against Puskas and an old-boy selection during a similar game a few years ago. Buljevic, another member of the 1974 Socceroos, retired prematurely as he was unhappy with the treatment he got from the then coach, Len McKendry, at South Melbourne Hellas. One of the greatest forwards in Australian soccer history, Buljevic came from OFK Belgrade to join Footscray JUST from where he moved on to Heidelberg-Alexander and then to Hellas. He made a brief comeback as a player with JUST while he was assistant to coach Rocco Ille a few years ago. Scored 50 NSL goals and seven in his 22 full internationals for Australia. Also scored seven goals in 22 games for Victoria.

FRANK MICIC: With Micic in midfield, JUST won four State League championships, two Dockerty Cups, one Australian Ampol Cup, two Victorian Ampol Cups and three State League Cups. He played about 60 games for Victoria — more than any other player — won the 1964 and 1967 Argus Medals and the 1973 Bill Fleming Medal.

What's more, he played seven full internationals for Australia and had a brief stint as coach of Hakoah. He rates the 1963 JUST team as the best the club has had. It was: Marko Fode; Rale Rasic, Milenko Ruzmir, Frank Micic, Billy Rice, Ces Dixon, Enio Marinovic, Vero Mladenovic, Ivan Piki, Mirko Pejovic, Tommy Stankovic.

JIMMY MILISAVJEVIC: Brilliant goalkeeper who was in the Australian squad for the 1974 World Cup finals in West Germany, and also played for Victoria. Injury cut short his career with JUST and he later was player-coach of Ringwood United.

SLOBODAN ZORAJA: Buljevic's attacking partner at JUST for about seven years, Zoraja was top scorer in the State League in 1971 and among the leaders every other year until he retired. Played nine games for Victoria.

MIRKO RUJEVIC: Skillful, strong central striker who led JUST's attack in the early years of the National League and also played four games for Victoria.

BILLY RICE: Rates among the pioneers of the Socceroos, as he represented Australia against Chelsea in 1965, the year after Australia was re-admitted to FIFA. He also played in Australia's first two World Cup games, against North Korea in 1965, losing 1-6 and 1-3 in Phnom Penh. Coached the JUST youth team this year.

JIM KONDARIOS and JIM KRIARIS: Bracketed together because they played alongside each other in JUST's and Victoria's defence. Kriaris joined JUST from Heidelberg-Alexander and Kondarios also played for Croatia and Keilor-Austria.

for nine years after arriving here from Yugoslavia with Zdravko Lujic.

Others include midfielders Marjan Lopatic and Slobodan Lukic; goalkeeper Marko Fode; defender Joan Milinov and "guest stars" Steve

Bleszkany and Joe Szabo who both starred with Melbourne-Hungaria. ★ ★ ★

Other highlights of the year include the scoring of the teams one hundredth goal by Bill Gianniotis against Clayton in front of an enthusiastic Malvern home crowd, and the team soundly defeating their arch-rivals — South Melbourne Hellas — in both league games and in the VSF Cup elimination round.

With the experience of this year behind them, Malvern City look ready to begin their Assault on the 1989 premiership and the players and coach are eagerly looking forward to the start of what they are sure will be another successful year.

Ansett.

ALAN Roodhouse of Box Hill has carried off the Ansett Best Player Award after tying with Caulfield City's Paul Harris.

Last week we inadvertently showed Harris' total vote as 41, instead of 42. Going into the last round he led Roodhouse by three votes therefore, but failed to gain a vote in Caulfield's drab game with St Albans.

Roodhouse however, was voted best man on the ground in the game against Maribyrnong by referee Barry Grant, and accordingly caught up with Harris.

Roodhouse pipped Harris in a countback, having gained ten three-pointers to Harris' eight.

'BERGERS WORTHY CHAMPS

FALCONS HAVE TO SWEAT

The most contentious State League season since Federation has finally come to an end — on the playing field at least.

Judging from mutterings around the grounds, a lot of clubs are in a rebellious mood about the swingeing reduction to the League and talking about action.

If any club is contemplating legal action, it can forget about it.

The VSF is plainly not going to budge, and clubs have only themselves to blame, or at least their delegates.

I suppose human nature being what it is, all the delegates to the three

It was no surprise, either that Green Gully and St Albans were the other teams to make up the four.

Their form showed fewer aberrations than the rest and in the end it was consistency that counted.

Saints' Ivan Kelic topped the goalscorers' list but he didn't win any plaudits from his coach Tony Vrzina who got so frustrated with him in a terrible end of season game with Caulfield that he took him off.

He seemed to be of the opinion that Kelic having scored two goals in the midweek game against Oakleigh was content to rest on his three-goal cushion over Ringwood's their team-mates faults, but couldn't recognise their own.

Still there's not too much wrong that about seven new players couldn't fix.

FAWKNER THE FLOPEROO
The biggest flop of all, of course, was Fawkner.

It managed to slump from third top last year to finish third bottom last week... maybe amalgamation is the answer.

And to think, there were people up Fawkner way who actually contemplated applying for the National League last year!

Rumour has it that Juventus officials have become very chummy with the Fawkner people since the end of the NSL season.

Maybe amalgamation wouldn't be a bad thing for both.

One of Victorian soccer's greatest mysteries is the reluctance of Italian people to support Juventus.

Given our population mix, Juve should be one of the best supplied clubs in the country, but it isn't.

FALCONS HAVE TO SWEAT
One Italian-backed club that is facing a nail-biting four weeks is Morwell Falcons.

After finishing seventh bottom, its only hope of remaining a State League club lies with Heidelberg.

Heidelberg plays Brisbane City in Brisbane on October 16 and in Melbourne on October 23 in the NSL promotion play-offs.

If Heidelberg fails to beat Brisbane City, down will go Falcons.

Falcons also announced last week that it was withdrawing from the Dockerty Cup as a matter of principle.

It will probably be fined, but says other clubs should do the same, to expose the VSF's impeititude.

Another club that is also considering withdrawing is Green Gully.

A spokesman for the Gully told us on Sunday that the club would be sitting down and taking a searching look at the advisability of pulling out.

It might be cheaper to pay a fine than pay the players to keep on training was his point of view.

THE FUTURE'S BRIGHT FOR 'VALE
Of all the six clubs that have been relegated, Springvale City's outlook could be the brightest.

South Dandenong 3

Parkmore 2

SOUTH DANDENONG: V. Ajrovi, R. Luman (1. Sabanovski-45 min.), S. Fus (S. Semedonovski-46 min.), K. Craven, B. Elmazovski, J. Elmazovski, H. Fasal, M. Jusic, S. Elmazovski, Y. Gonullu, H. Sepetci. PARKMORE: M. Acs, A. Szabo, L. Makai, F. Varga, S. Gasmann, D. Milton (A. Antus-45 min.), G. Rowo, M. Gyarmati, R. Radog, J. Biro, S. Gyarmati (T. Simsek-67 min.)

South were missing their central striker and leading goal scorer, Yildirim, who was suspended for one game. Their problems were further compounded when defenders, Luman and Fus retired injured from the match at half time.

The Dandenong team were overwhelmingly in control in the first half and yet found themselves one goal down at the interval. An orthodox chip into the goalmouth from the right should have posed no trouble for keeper, Ajrovi, but clearly a lack of communication in defence resulted in Luman heading the ball into his own net.

Three minutes into the second half South had their backs to the wall and Parkmore could hardly believe it was happening when they shot into a two goal lead through Rowo.

Ajrovi's punched clearance failed to make distance and Rowo volleyed home, the ball taking a deflection en route to goal. South got back onto the game when Gonullu's tam shot found the net just inside Acs left upright.

The goalkeeper should certainly have saved this one. A hitherto subdued home crowd came to life when South were awarded a penalty nine minutes from time. A sharper keeper might have saved this one also — Sepetci's placed shot was not too far wide of Acs left hand. Jusic's left wing corner hit Sam Elmazovski and fell loose to Sepetci who tapped the ball in from two metres. This win assures South Dandenong of the Championship and second on the ladder, Ascot St Marks, must now await the outcome of South's final game against South Springvale who with a clear three goal win, can still join South in promotion.

As was the story for the rest of the day the frustration continued, until retiring referee, Dennis Voutsinas, blew his whistle for the end of the game.

The result managed to sneak St Albans into fourth spot, whilst Caulfield finished their 1988 campaign in a respectable fifth position.

Both teams played one touch 'rush' soccer, but neither was able to create, it seems the forwards manage to blunder and waste.

Players of the calibre of Brazil's Romario and Russia's Alex Mikhailchenko, who punished the Socceroos severely, don't miss the sort of opportunities that Frank Farina and Graham Arnold squander so lightly.

Coach Frank Arok and his assistant Eddie Thomsom will be able to start straight away on rectifying the problem...the Socceroos play New Zealand in the first Leg of the week!

ZELJKO GAGULA

In the last round of the State League Championship Caulfield City and St Albans played out a scoreless draw at Princes Park on Saturday.

Both teams tended to be very shot-shy, always trying to take on one too many players or else touching the ball one too many times. The idea of walking the ball into the net seemed to appeal to both sides, particularly Caulfield.

As St Albans and Caulfield were out of the running for the Championship, the prospect of appearing in the State League Top Four Series and next seasons Buffalo Gold Cup, was still at stake.

St Albans came closest to producing a goal in the

BRAZIL V THE USSR

The Socceroos will derive a certain wry satisfaction from the fact that their two conquerors, Brazil and Russia will meet in the Olympic final on Saturday night.

Brazil beat West Germany 3-2 in a dramatic penalty shoot-out after the two teams finished 1-1 after extra time.

In the other semi-final, Russia proved too strong for Italy in extra-time, winning 3-1.

LIVERPOOL V RANGERS IN MELBOURNE

Plans are well underway for English champion Liverpool to meet Glasgow Rangers in Melbourne immediately after the 1988-89 British season finishes, probably in May or early June.

VSF Chairman Jack Reilly has been negotiating with Liverpool who have tentatively agreed, provided the European ban situation hasn't altered drastically by then, and Rangers have written to the local Rangers supporters club expressing a wish to tour Australia.

Rangers' biggest shareholder, multi-millionaire builder Lawrence Marlborough is behind the proposed match too, and says it is part of his plan to build a world-wide network of Rangers supporters club.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE ROUND-UP

This Competitio, for Reserves teams, features a clash between two Clubs which have been members of the League for some years.

Glenroy Doxa joined the League in 1980, and has won the Reserves Cup five times, stringing together successive victories from 1982 to 1986, and was a beaten Semi-Finalist in 1987.

The club has put together a strong combination for its 1988 challenge, but its squad will need to be at peak form to get the better of an equally powerful Apollo United team.

This is Apollo's first appearance in a Cup Final, and it is quite determined that it will be a case of first time lucky. Certainly, having fought its way past a Semi-final encounter with the daunting Middle Park combination, it is not to be taken lightly.

THE PATRICK ALL STARS CHALLENGE

Kicking off at 1pm, this match promises to provide a real feast for the connoisseurs of soccer. These are the teams: Just Old Boys: Jimmy Milisavljevic, Marian Lopatic, Move Milinov, Andy Kazi, Billy Price, Frank Micic, Marko Fode, Mirko Rudjevic, Danny Zoraja, Branko Buljevic, Danny Lukic, Bata Jovic, Rade Popovic, Ivan Hazabent, Steve Bleskany, Joe Szabo, Milenko Ruzmir, Jim Kriaris.

Eleven: Ferenc Puskas, Jack Reilly, Nick Van Egmond, Jim MacKay, John Gardner, John Sanchez, Alister Scott, Joe Tront, Jim Rooney, John Bedford, Jim Armstrong, Billy Vojter, Billy Rowley, Steve Walker, Peter Bunney, Manos Milios.

What a mouth watering list of talent this is, and what an enthralling encounter it will be, but it does not end there as the Team Manager for the Puskas XI will be none other than Ted Smith, a member of the Australian Soccer Team at the 1956 Melbourne Olympics.

Certainly for the older generation this encounter will turn the clock back to the Golden Age of Victorian Soccer of the 1950s and 1960s. Puskas is a legend in his own right and is quite properly accorded a place with the immortals of the game.

But who would gainsay players of the calibre of Micic, Reilly, Mackay, Armstrong and Buljevic, to name but a few, a place in anyone's Hall of Fame? ★★★★★★

THE MANSFIELD BUNNEY INVITATION CUP

The League Cup Final is always the greatest event in the League's calendar.

1988 will be no exception. Both teams are Second Division teams, both are Champions in their respective sections — Fibremakers of 2M and Windsor of 2A.

Both teams are making their first appearance in a Cup Final. Each has got to the Final the hard way. Fibremakers United has been a member of the League since 1972. To get to the Final it defeated Apollo United (Div.1), Thomastown United (Div.2A), Berwick United (2A), and then had to survive a titanic struggle with 3 West's Altona Heights before winning its Semi-final 5-4 on penalties from Preston Pythons.

Certainly, it's record shows it has an incredible capacity for "hanging in there", and of capitalising on any mistakes its opposition might make.

Or, does it force its opposition into making the mistake? Whatever the answer, the fact is that the Fibremakers combination will be no pushover.

Windsor, on the other hand, is something of a Johnny Come Lately. It joined the League at the beginning of the 1987 season and has an outstanding record since.

In its first year, it was just edged out of the Fourth Division Championship by Dandy Dynamo, and when the experimental Division 2A was mooted for 1988, was one of the first applicants.

Like Fibremakers United, it is shooting for the Championship and Cup double. To get to the Final, Windsor has accounted for St Bernards Old Collegians (2M), St Albans Dynamo (Div.1), ANZ Bank (Div.1) and 3 East's Dallas United, finally surviving a marathon encounter with League Champions, Middle Park, to win its Semi-final match 4-2 on penalties.

Like Fibremakers United, Windsor does not know when it is beaten. Its main strengths are a strong defensive line-up and a talented and disciplined mid-field. Up front it can occasionally produce the flair and fire-power to worry any opponent. It will be no surprise if this match is finally settled from the Penalty Spot.

To re-cap: These are the basic details of the day's activities. The day: Sunday, October 2nd. The place: Middle Park Stadium (South Melbourne Hellas HQ). Mansfield Bunney Invitation kick-off 11am. Patrick All Stars Match kick-off 1pm. Mansfield Bunney League Cup kick-off 3pm. Presentation of Awards: Immediately following each match. Admission: By programme (available for donation of $2 — children and pensioners no charge). Refreshments: Available from South Melbourne Hellas Cafeteria.

STATE LEAGUE ROUND-UP

Springvale embarked on a youth policy at the start of the season and the club has been so pleased with Gus MacLeod's handling of his squad that the committee wanted to talk to him about next year even before the last game was played.

With Springvale's excellent facilities and the spirit that is rampant in the club, it's a pretty good bet that it will be prominent in the promotion race next year.

OF the others, it could be one time before the once-powerful Western Suburbs bounces back, and Oakleigh might take a couple of years to regroup. And it looks as if Box Hill might have to accept playing on Saturday's after all.

is now turned to next week's encounters at the Middle Park Stadium, with the Finals of the two Cups and the Patrick All Stars match creating tremendous interest.
